Concord's Redbirds Win 1947 County Cage Title

Murray Training Drops Final Game

The fast breaking Redbirds of Concord, coached by Edward Curo, boosted themselves into the Calloway County basketball throne by defeating the Colts of Murray Training School 40-26 in the final round of tournament play last Saturday night.

The tournament, managed by Carlisle Cutchin, was held in the Carr Gym.

Led by J. B. Bell, who scored 38 points during the meet, the Redbirds were held to a 14-11 halftime advantage by the superior rebounding of Johnny Underwood's Colts, but staged a 16 point scoring barrage in the final frame to outclass the Colts.

In gaining the final game, the Redbirds swamped Almo's Warriors 43-14 and took a 56-46 decision from the Wildcats of Lynn Grove.

Murray Training drew a bye and overcame Hazlet 40-35.

to become number one team in the top bracket.

Hazel Noses Kirksey The tournament, starting with two games on Thursday night, failed to produce any outstanding upsets but the opening tilt between Hazel and Kirksey's Eagles got the event under way with a thrill packed scramble as the Lions barely won Kirksey 24-23.

Thursday night's nightcap was taken by a stroll as the title bound Redbirds blasted an Almo quintet from the court.

Hazel ran into trouble in the semi-finals as Hugh Fugua and Ted Thompson accounted for 16 points apiece to eliminate the Lions and move the Training School Colts to the final game. Concord, did not find Lynn Grove such easy sledding, however, as the Wildcats, after trailing 37-22 at the three quarter mark, started to narrow the gap in the final stanza and forced the Redbirds to play their best brand of ball to salvage a 56-46 victory.

Asks Support

Claude Miller

Claude Miller, chairman of the Calloway March of Dimes Committee, stated last night that the 1947 drive against polio, from all indications, will fall short of the $2,500 obtained last year.

Miller said that a committee will work in the downtown area tomorrow and asked all Calloway Countians to contribute to this cause.

A definite total for the drive is impossible now, he stated, because contributions, usually continue to come in long after the drive is officially ended. Today is the last day of the campaign.

One of the new businesses to open in Murray recently is the Murray Service Company operated by Voris Wells and Benny Maddox.

Full Time Station Needed, Overbey Declares

As the long-awaited Federal Communications Commission hearing on Murray Broadcasting Company's petition for broadcasting rights was held here Thursday and Friday last week, Murrayans had the privilege of hearing one of Calloway's most distinguished residents tell the story of what all available records indicate was the first broadcast of the human voice in the history of the world.

Dr. Rainey T. Wells, former Calloway County attorney and president of Murray State College, told the FCC representatives how Nathan Stubblefield gave a demonstration of his broadcasting device in 1902 and added, "As far as I know, that was the first conversation ever carried by what we now call radio."

Paris Seeks Channel A similar hearing was conducted at Paris, Tenn., on Wednesday for Paris Broadcasting Company, which seeks rights to the frequency, the only fulltime (day and night) channel now available in this area.

George E. Overbey, Murray attorney and president of MBC, stated during the hearing that his company had no desire to request rights to a daytime only channel and that "what we want is a full-time radio station for the birthplace of radio."

Neville Miller, Washington attorney and former mayor of Louisville, represented the Murray company in its application which had been submitted in September of last year.

Dr. Wells, in testifying before the commission stated that he had known Nathan B. Stubblefield since boyhood. "I was Stubblefield's attorney in 1901 for the purpose of securing patents for his apparatus," he said. Dr. Wells recalled that Stubblefield lived approximately 100 feet west of the present site of Wells Hall on the college campus.

Broadcast Described The untimely general attorney for the Woodmen of the World insurance society said that he was called to Stubblefield's home in the summer of 1902 to participate in the demonstration. Stubblefield entered what "we would call a broadcasting booth today" and spoke to Dr. Wells from a distance of 2,000 to 3,000 feet.

"The Apparatus Worked" Dr. Wells said that he was highly skeptical of the invention at that time and moved about with the receiver during the experiment to eliminate the possibility of concealed wires or other trickery. The apparatus worked to perfection," Dr. Wells declared.

Stubblefield died in Calloway County in 1928 and a monument to his memory now stands on the Murray State campus, near the scene of his early experiments. He is recognized by many as the real inventor of radio.

The decision of who gets the station, Murray or Paris, is now in the hands of the FCC and Murray officials have voiced their conviction that the commission has been made fully aware of the need and desire for a suitable station in Murray.

Several Testify Several officers and directors of the company appeared before the commission.

FOUR MURRAYANS FINED BY COURT

Violation Of OPA Ceilings Charged To Twelve In Illinois

Four Murrayans were among 12 men who pleaded guilty to charges of selling automobiles over OPA ceilings Tuesday and fined by Federal Judge Walter C. Lindley at Danville, Ill.

The four defendants from Murray who were fined are David Messen, $200; Noble Dick, $500; Neal Starks, $100; and Charles Roberts, $100.

Judge Lindley said he based the amounts of the fines on the number of sales and the amounts above ceiling prices, and also on whether the defendants already had been prosecuted in Federal Court at Detroit. Thirty-one car-dealers were indicted at Detroit last April.

Ben Fishel, proprietor of the auction at Cairo, Ill., was fined a total of $65,000 and sentenced to two years in prison at Cairo on October 7, on his plea of guilty to 30 counts of an indictment charging violations of OPA prices.

Others fined were Henton Farley, Benton, $500; John D. Lovick, Paducah, $800; John Nelson, Paducah, $750; J. P. Dickerson, Ellettsville, $2,500; R. S. Rudolph, Mayfield, $250; Ellis Dowdy, Benton, $500; and M. E. Bradley, Pocahtonias, Ark., $350.

Robert Poole, Harrisburg auto dealer, was fined $2,500 in another case.

Murray Ministers Announce Plans For City Church Census

The Ministerial Association of Murray has announced plans to conduct a religious census of the city on February 9-12.

Rev. Braxton B. Sawyer, pastor of the First Baptist Church, chairman of the campaign, has said that the ministers challenged by the recent count made by the chamber of commerce, will seek to gain information of the residents of Murray which will be of aid to them in rendering spiritual service to Murrayans.

The plans will be formulated at a meeting to be held at the First Methodist Church next Sunday.

The ministers have divided the town into 10 geographical zones and a group of chairmen and 10 census workers will work with each zone.

Rev. C. C. Lancaster, pastor of the Church of Christ, will furnish one zone chairman and 10 workers.

Rev. Robert Jarman, pastor of the First Christian Church, will supply one zone chairman and 10 workers.

Rev. T. H. Mullins, Jr., pastor of the First Methodist Church will furnish three zone chairmen and 30 workers; and Rev. Sawyer will provide four zone chairmen and 40 workers.

The 110 workers will assemble at the Memorial Baptist Church on the opening day of the drive for instructions and will continue the census until Wednesday night, February 12. Cards will be used which contain space for name, address, age, sex, occupation, church affiliation, and denominational preference of each individual in Murray.

Let's Take a Bus Ride...

Twelve years ago C. Ray came to town, wanting to start a Bus Line. I having secured a franchise to start a Bus Line out of Murray, but on account of roads, and other business had not started to operate. Mr. Ray had one used Sedan, but was ambitious and had some experience; he wanted to buy me out, and offered me $300.00 for my right provided it could be transferred to him by the department at Frankfort.

I investigated him and found him capable and honorable, so I agreed that if he would make a Terminal in Murray, and build as soon as possible a Terminal building, and not sell or lease to anyone without my consent I would give it to him, to which he agreed, and has carried out the agreement and built a great Terminal which all are proud of. I have not seen a town anywhere so well taken care of.

I was much pleased when Mr. Ray asked me if the present company, the West Kentucky Stages, would be satisfactory to me in maintaining the Murray Terminal. Upon investigation, and after several years operation I think all territory served by them is well pleased. It has grown to be one of the greatest units of progress in Murray, and renders services found no better anywhere. I am proud to have had some part in establishing it. It has added much to the credit of road taxes accredited to Calloway County. But for Buses and Trucks there would not be half of the present revenues. I have no financial interest in it and have not had since I gave it away.

Just a line to say that I have received 2000 yards of good 36-inch Brown Cotton and a nice assortment of Work Clothing and Shoes.

I have the largest stock of Draperies in three years; also Spring Dress Goods, and Notions. Come in every time in town to see what we have to offer.

Murray Daily Newspaper, 1906, Shows Countians Slammed Mayfield, Paris

A glance through the March 23, 1906, issue of the Daily Free Press, published in Murray at that time, reveals that the people of Calloway County had other things than coal, strikes and atomic bombs on their minds.

The editors, John Mack Melan and Andrew Osborn, were outspoken in their aversion to wife beating. An editorial cites the Oregon law of 1905 providing 20 lashes for convicted wife beaters. One erring husband received the 20 lashes from a "whip of short cowhide stock with four buckskin thongs." The whipping received wide attention and "it made troublesome husbands fearful."

The Mayfield Messenger wasn't above taking an occasional poke at the good people of Calloway County in those days. The Murray paper of 1906 quotes a Graves County wit as calling Murray "a town without a court-house."

"We presume," replied the Calloway editors, "this gives us license to speak of the Graves county capital as a court-house without a town. Here at Dixie Bolton says."

He is also well known as a composer. His "Orchestral Suite" having been performed three times by the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra.

The highlights of his performance Tuesday night will be Bach's E Major Sonata and his own "Ukrainian Rhapsody."

Prof. Prydatkevitch will also play a song of America that he has arranged for violin and which describes a song of admiration and gratitude by Ukrainian immigrants to the countries of the new world.

Other selections will be "Imps" by Beethoven, "Piece en Forme de Habanera" by M. Ravel, and "Slavonic Dances" by A. Dvorak and Kreisler.

superintendents of adoption, on December 20, of a Code for Health and Physical Education by the State Board of Education.

Superintendent Williams explained that, although it is a great forward step toward making Kentucky a healthier state, the Code makes ample provision for limited medical facilities and personnel in local communities, and, at the same time, is elastic enough to encourage improvement.

The Code, well timed and planned to suit public needs, makes four provisions: (1) compulsory medical and physical examinations for pupils and school staffs, (2) requirement for uniform cumulative pupil health records, (3) compulsory carrying of schools of health and physical education throughout each of the twelve grades, and (4) provisions for the State Department's supplying courses of study and syllabi to serve as guides in setting up programs in the various elementary and secondary schools. It is also noted that the State Superintendent is given authority to examine local programs, as well as to penalize schools not complying with the guidelines provided in the specified bulletins.

W. Z. Carter, principal of Murray High School, stated that the school here has an excellent program for both elementary and secondary schools. "All teachers file health certificates before opening of school," Carter said.

COUNTY TEACHERS ELECT JEFFREY

Educators Meet To Discuss Pay Rates; Wage Set At $66.51

On Tuesday, January 21, a meeting of the teachers of the county was called by County School Superintendent Prentice Lassiter for the purpose of discussing teachers' salaries. Mr. Lassiter stated at the beginning of this meeting that both he and the county school board realized fully that teachers' salaries were inadequate, but that there was nothing they could do to remedy this situation until legislation made this possible. For this reason he wished, he said, to advise with the teachers and form some kind of organization which would give its support to those who were endeavoring to have such legislation enacted. The superintendent said that some counties already had organized for this purpose and that others were doing so.

Conditions Reviewed
The teachers reviewed conditions and expressed the feeling that these matters had been sorely neglected. Several teachers reviewed their salaries over a number of years and pointed out that while there have been some increases in the past few years that they have not increased nearly as much as the cost of living has risen. One teacher, a widow who has taught 27 years in the county, said she had been forced to grow a tobacco crop and work at other jobs to be able to rear her family and teach school.

Mr. Lassiter gave these figures on the teachers' pay compared on a 12 month basis: the average grade teacher in Calloway County receives $73.04 per month and when taxes and retirement is taken out the net salary averages $66.51 per month. He said that these conditions are hurting the children of the county as well as the teachers because many teachers have been forced to turn to other occupations to make a living. Others have to carry on another job at the same time and thus are forced to neglect their teaching to some extent. None of these teachers can afford to go to school in summer on this salary, he explained.

Organization Formed
The teachers unanimously decided that an organization should be formed to work in every way possible to alleviate this situation. Burton Jeffrey, principal of Lynn Grove High School, was elected as its president. Other officers are Carmon Parks, vice-president; Mrs. Juma Wilson, secretary; and John Brinn, reporter. This group pledged its full support to KEA, the Committee for Kentucky and others working for this objective. They then voted to work with

Murray's Racers

By 56-51 Tally

The University of Louisville Cardinals, trotted out a last half 15 point scoring spree to drop Murray's Breds 56-51 in the Carr Gym Tuesday night.

Little John Knopf, Cardinal guard, ripped the nets for 19 points to gain scoring honors. Knopf did his damage from well out in the floor.

Murray had the tilt knotted at 2-2 but couldn't get back into the game until early in the final half when Johnny Reagan racked up a goal to give the Racers a 32-31 lead. The Murray rally floundered there, as the Cards stepped up their fast break to dominate the game.

Louisville enjoyed a 26-22 half-time lead.

Fire Proves Good

Neighbors Are Valuable

Calloway County neighbors are a good thing to have, says Walter Lamb, resident of the northwest corner of the county. Last week Lamb's house burned to the ground with his 2,440 pound tobacco crop, the clothes of the entire family and practically everything else the family owned.

Living in the house were Mr. and Mrs. Lamb, their two sons, "Buck" and Cleo, and Mrs. Buck Lamb and her six small children.

Walter Lamb suffered a heart attack during the excitement and collapsed. None of the occupants of the house were seriously injured.

Neighbors began to get together and collect money and clothing for the Lamb family. T. S. Chester, who helped organize the relief fund, reported that, after taking over a day to tabulate the results, he found that over $300 in cash had been collected and enough clothing to outfit a small army.

HATCHETT'S GROCERY

1214 Main Street

S. Pleasant Grove

By Mrs. Sara Smotherman

Glad the sun has shined a few days lately, however, the gloomy cloudy weather helps us to be more grateful for the bright days.

Mrs. Bert Miltstead fell at her home Sunday and sustained injuries.

Mrs. Letha Bradburn, who fell at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hafford Orr, and broke an arm, is seriously ill with complications. She will be remembered as Miss Letha Adams. She was one of the Gunter's Flat girls.

Mrs. Eph Taylor of Clinton, who after a lingering illness, passed away last week, was brought to her home church at Martins Chapel for funeral and burial. She was Ella Barber. Her parents, Frances Miller Barber and Coon Barber, passed many years ago. Of the four brothers and sisters, Mrs. Alice Barber, Alderson and Leona Barber have died. Only one brother, Ira Barber, of Murray survives. Her husband was also one of the Gunter's Flat boys. Two of our teachers who taught at Gunter's Flat several decades ago are living at Murray. Mrs. Mattie Walters Ligon, 304 North Sixth street, and Mrs. Dola Jackson and son, Billy, and Mr. and Mrs. Gaylon Jackson and sons.

Mrs. Annie Harmon visited Mrs. Bess Linville Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. C. Lamb have moved to the home of Mrs. Lamb's parents and Mr. Lamb is attending school at Lynn Grove.

Miss Alice Winchester visited Miss Virginia Futrell Saturday night.

Mrs. Jim Erwin, who sustained a broken arm and a broken rib, and other injuries last Friday when her car was struck by a passing car, is a patient in the Clinic at Murray. Other members of her family with her escaped injuries.

Mrs. Erwin is one of the Hazel High School teachers. We wish for all a speedy improvement.

The death of Mrs. Jim Pieschall last week was unexpected. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Charlton, who passed some 30 years ago and the last of a large family. Her brother John Charlton died last year.

Bo. A. J. C. will fill his appointment at Pleasant Grove next Sunday at 11 a.m. after Sunday School.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Paschall have moved to the Jesse Key farm and Mr. and Mrs. Key and their son, Calvin, lately from the army, have moved to Harlan.

Sub district youth fellowship meeting assembled at Pleasant Grove Monday evening. A good program was rendered.

Taylors Store News

A large crowd was at Murray Monday.

Most all the farmers are busy with their tobacco hauling it to market and they report it to be weighing mighty good. Several reported better than 2,000 pounds to the acre.

Glad to see the pretty sunshine for the last two days. Think about all the women got their washing done Monday.

Mrs. Porter Charlton is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Less Dalton and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Tony Dalton of Tri-City Sunday.

Mrs. H. S. Wilkerson is some better after being confined to her bed a few days because of illness.

Wilburn Spann and family spent the weekend with their daughter, Mrs. Vanoe Hicks of Murray.

Thomas Wilkerson of Detroit was a visitor of his grandmother one night last week.

Arthur Lassiter has purchased a new truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lassiter visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brandon of Hazel Saturday and Sunday.

"A letter from home" to those here and far away — from friends in Calloway County — A place of good neighbors and progressive citizens

Calloway Is Reported Among Counties Authorized For Construction of Lines

A net reduction of $1,152,733.50 annually in utility rates in Kentucky, was effected and the construction of 8,212 miles of new electric distribution lines was authorized by the Public Service Commission in 1946, according to a report to Governor Willis by Charles E. Whittle, chairman of the commission.

Of the new construction authorized 14 miles are in Calloway County, according to the report. "There were 12 separate rate adjustments during the year," Whittle said. "Of these, five were increases and seven were reductions, but the increase aggregate only $35,244.50, while the reductions total $1,187,978.00."

All of the seven reductions reported were for electric service and affected 142,291 customers, of whom 80 per cent were domestic customers. The average annual saving to each customer was $8.35.

"The 8,212 miles of new construction authorized extends in 114 counties and is designed to serve approximately 50,000 new customers to whom no existing electric distribution system is accessible," the report sets forth. "Preliminary surveys have been completed for all of the extensions authorized, several hundred miles have already been built and energized, and the construction of others is proceeding as rapidly as materials become available."

R. H. Parrish of Taylor county is selling $300 worth of milk per month from 10 cows, which he says are medium grade, but well fed.

County Agent Has Farm Record Books

"Farm records are a must for any farmer desiring to maintain sound business management," says Ernest J. Nesius, of the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. "Aside from their value for filing income tax returns, they will become increasingly important for keeping a watchful eye on farm costs. History of previous periods indicates that farm costs stay up for a short period after prices received start downward. During such periods, a good record-keeping system will pay for itself many times."

The Kentucky Farm Account book, which is especially prepared for analyzing the farm business and filing income tax returns, may be obtained at the county agent's office.

Mayfield Cracks Murray 35-32 In Overtime Battle

Ty Holland's Murray High Tigers dropped their third game of the season to a ball hawking squad of Mayfield Cardinals by 35-32 in an overtime game here Monday night. Chester Materick, rangy Cardinal pivotman, accounted for 12 points to lead all scorers. Two of his markers came in the crucial overtime period.

Eddie J. Bazzel, visiting guard, tossed in a free throw to knot the count at 30-30 seconds before the game ended but it was Murray's Billy Joe Farris who gave the home crowd heart failure as he missed two gratis flings as the clock ran out on regular game time.

Hendley put the Cards ahead 31-30 as the extra stanza started but Farris reversed the lead with a field basket seconds later. School was out as far as the Tigers were concerned, however, as Materick intercepted a pass and dribbled down the floor to score. With the Cards leading 33-32, Deanie Barlow pushed in the clincher as Mayfield's all over the floor defense kept the Tigers away from money territory.

Lineups:
Mayfield 35 F. Murray 32
Hendley 6 P. Murrell 4
Barlow 12 F. Farris 8
Materick 12 C. Slaughter 8
Bazzel 4 G. Thurman 5

Subs: Mayfield—Heflin 4, Rodgers and B. Taylor; Murray—Alexander 3, Ward 2, and Clark.

First Methodist Church

(Ed. Note—This is the second in a series on Murray Churches)

According to the oldest records available, a small band of Methodists were holding services in Murray in the home of Seth P. Pool in 1832. The Pool home was situated on the hill on the west side of Fourth Street south of Vine. A spring known as Pool's Spring still flows at the foot of that hill.

The struggling little congregation was part of the Wadesboro Circuit of 24 preaching places, most of which were private homes. There were churches at Wadesboro, Concord and Southernland's Camp Ground.

In the list of homes in which services were held on occasion are the following names of present significance: Futrell, Ragsdale, Wether, Pool, Rev. Robert Whitnell, a local preacher who was the grandfather of the late William L. Whitnell, Rev. Washington, Hood and C. A. Waterfield, at whom the Hood and Waterfield families are descendants. Other family names prominent in those days were Cole, Farmer, Langston, Stubblefield, Wells and Walters.

Districts Changed

In 1846 the Wadesboro Circuit was discontinued and the Murray Circuit organized in the following year with the First Quarterly Conference held at Martin's Chapel. The Circuit included Murray, Bethel, Concord, Wadesboro, Cole's Chapel, Mulberry Grove, Goshen, Martin's Chapel and several other preaching places. New Hope, Mt. Carmel, Temple Hill, South Pleasant Grove and Providence were added during the years immediately following 1846. In 1875 the Murray Circuit was taken from the Paris District where it originated and placed in the Dresden District, and in 1876 it was listed in the Paducah District to be returned later to the Paris District.

In 1879 the first church was erected on a lot which is the present site of a taxicab stand on South Fourth Street, that lot having been purchased in 1873 for $100.00. A splendid frame church was built and Sunday School rooms added later. Mrs. Mattie Ligon is the only daughter of the members of the Fourth Street Church.

Within a few years the congregation had outgrown that building and achieved a station raising. In 1901 the Murray Church was taken from the Murray Circuit and made a full station and the present building completed in 1903. J. D. Sexton has the honor of being the only steward who has served since 1903.

Sidelights Are Interesting
Many interesting sidelights of other days may be gleaned from an old Quarterly Conference Journal which dates back to 1832. One is in the form of a resolution dated April 26, 1834: "Resolved, that class leaders press on each member the necessity of raising the sum of 12 1-2 cents per quarter for the church life is not marred by any attitude foreign to the Spirit of Christ. Methodists are taught to overlook the faults of their brethren and to love them beyond human frailty.

Ky. Fescue Praised By Hardin Farmers

Farm Agent A. J. Thaxton of Hardin county says that Ky. 31 fescue is creating considerable interest among farmers. Many of them are visiting the farms where approximately 325 acres are being grown to observe the various ways of seeding, such as fescue seeded broadcast, fescue sowed with ladino clover, fescue drilled in rows 2 inches and 16 inches apart, fescue and winter oats drilled in alternate rows 2 inches apart and fescue sowed broadcast with a small seeding of winter oats as a nurse crop. Each of the seedings will be harvested for seed and then used as pasture.

What The Census Means

The house to house census conducted by the Murray Chamber of Commerce last week means a great deal more than the figures indicate.

There is ample satisfaction in the fact that we have 5,187 permanent residents within our city limits, and to realize that there are an additional 3,000 in the Murray area, including those who live in the college section and the 1,500 students of Murray State.

The most important fact is that the population of the city shows almost 50 per cent increase over the official 1940 census of 3,773, and that this increase represents sound growth.

Since 1940 many communities in this area enjoyed a "boom" as the result of munitions plants, army camps, or other establishments incident to the war.

Murray had none of these. In fact it even lost a substantial temporary population it had before the war as a result of scores of families of T.V.A. construction workers having been transferred elsewhere upon completion of Kentucky Dam.

The 1,414 folks who live in Murray who were not here when the 1940 census was taken moved here to make their home. The fact they are gainfully employed is reflected in bank deposits and bank clearances. They are not working here temporarily and sending their earnings elsewhere.

They came because they knew Murray was a good place to live and they are buying and building homes because the people of the community have made them welcome.

Unlike so many other communities in Kentucky, it doesn't take long for a new citizen of Murray to become "home folks." We make them part of our civic, business and social life.

Even those who are with us a short time, students of Murray State, and others, feel at home in Murray and they spread reports of our hospitality over a wide area.

The Chamber of Commerce has done a fine thing to conduct the house to house census and it has increased our civic pride accordingly.

Road To City Dump

The Fiscal Court of Calloway County recently made it unlawful to dump trash in any stream or dry stream bed in the county. The proper place for the disposal of trash and garbage was given as the city dump on North 12th Street extended.

This is a timely law as it will stop indiscriminate dumping and cut down the number of unsightly trash heaps over the county.

It would be well if the road to the city dump was improved to the extent that an automobile could negotiate the difficult road surface without danger of becoming bogged down.

The easier it is to observe this law, the less often it will be broken.

Let the name of a great man be mentioned, and the first thing that pops into the noodle of everybody is the one, if any, discreditable incident of his career.

What 'O' We Want

"We the people" are making some fast moving decisions concerning those who will teach the youth who in turn will make the tomorrow. The public has insisted that dignity and the love for children can be accepted as too great a share of the remuneration for teachers. Teachers have pled with patience. Now the die is being cast.

Apparently teachers throughout the country are now deciding that dignity can't be cashed at the grocery store. Neither will the love for teaching pay interest on borrowed money.

The "No-teacher-strike" of which we used to boast is no more. Labor unions are cutting a noticeable swath into the teaching profession. It will take quick action by the general public, state legislative bodies, and the United States Congress to avert the public school system from joining hands with the strong labor pressure groups. It may already be too late.

On the other hand, it may be the public's wish that teachers let their needs and the needs of the school be known through channels of force. Teachers in the past have endeavored to make their appeal on the basis of reason and enlightenment. They have thought it more professional, more dignified and more in keeping with the ideal of education in democracy. Apparently it hasn't worked, and force always works if it is strong enough. That is an answer. But— is this what we want? Is this to become the American way?

The public school belongs to the people. Therefore, it is "we the people" who must soon decide whether we want public schools or divert back to private schools for those who can and are willing to pay. We must decide if our schools are to be controlled by professional people or hired hands, and financed through reason or force if our teachers are to be employees of an institution or job holders in an agency. "We the people" are casting the die now.

Letters To Editor

January 21, 1947
 Dear Editor:
 Exactly one year ago today I submitted a letter and a poem to the Ledger & Times in connection with my son's first birthday. This year Lee Thomas and I had a joint celebration with 20 guests attending. Among the group were former Calloways, Mrs. Boyce Taylor, Mrs. Novice Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. Tremon Miller, and the hostess.

Once again I like to dedicate the poem to all young mothers who now know what a lovely thing a growing child can be.

THE SECOND YEAR
 Saturday, you were two!
 And this year, did it fly?
 Twelve whole months!—isn't true?
 So much time has gone by!

Grand Rivers found you there
 To celebrate the first birthday
 Growing fast, a firmer tread;
 Yet "bumpy" falls at your play.

Easter passed—then began
 Murray trips—Nashville, too
 Indians stayed a month;
 Curiosity got the best of you.

Cutting teeth, one by one
 Process slow, lessons learned;
 Temperature "running" nose;
 Hand on iron, badly burned.

Whooping cough, praise those Shots!
 Just two weeks found all cured.
 Looking curls, eyes still blue.

Folk and cuts, pain endured.
 Late August, in Detroit,
 Rooming house, "mom" in charge
 Little pest, yet much help.

"Butch" to all, even "Sarge."
 Sunday School, quite a treat—
 Strange at first, hard to weep.
 Colors now, sings and sings.

"Prey Thee, Lord"—goes to sleep.
 Christmas joy, Santa Claus
 Monks' habits, spoken yet.
 Load deep water, loves those books.

Recognizes alphabet.
 Colors confused, counts to six;
 Busy, like, varied play.
 Eats and drinks, still makes mess.

But growth continues day by day.
 Birthday party, great success.
 Normous cake, pictures too;
 Very tired, joy complete.

Saturday, you're a year old!

Veterans' Corner

This column is published weekly through the cooperation of this paper. Questions should be mailed to the Veterans Employment Representative, United States Employment Service, Mayfield, Ky.

Q. "I was captured by the enemy during World War II and was a prisoner of war camp for 13 months, but my claims for disability have been denied by the Veterans Administration. What can I do now that the disability is getting worse?"

A. Veterans Administration will give special consideration to disability claims filed by Veterans interned in enemy prison camps. You should get in touch with your nearest Veterans Administration office and have your case reopened.

Q. Will Veterans Administration provide the training or stipend for students because of my service in a malaria infected country, even though I have never made application for compensation?

A. Yes. For the time being, if you will present your discharge to a Veterans Administration office and it indicates you saw service in a malaria infected country, Veterans Administration will provide you with training or stipend.

Q. Is a veteran who leaves his job entitled to a readjustment allowance?

A. If the veteran leaves suitable work voluntarily without good cause, or is suspended or discharged for misconduct, he may be disqualified for other weeks in addition to the week in which the discharge occurred.

Q. Will a veteran be able to get credit for work only and not work from week to week A?

A. World War II Veterans are entitled to any federal unemployment compensation.

NA. If you are otherwise qualified and are presently unemployed during any week, you may file a claim for a readjustment allowance amounting to $20.00 less the amount of wages received in excess of

BY EWING GALLOWAY

I'm going to get more pleasure out of writing about Madisonville than about any other subject I have tackled since I began this weekly column a year ago. Partly because I have known the Hopkins county seat and many of its civic leaders rather intimately for ten years, partly because it confirms the oft-repeated contention that the progress Kentucky needs so badly is mainly a community job.

When, some ten years ago, the city had an opportunity to get Federal aid to build a new and very modern hospital, 2200 people contributed to a necessary local fund of $32,000 and this money was raised in less than a week. The institution cost $195,000. It is paying its way, without asking the city council for a single dollar. The only mistake was not making it bigger. Plans for an addition to the hospital are now in the discussion stage, which, to anybody who knows Madisonville, means it will be built.

A million-dollar TB-hospital is to be built just outside the city in the near future.

When other cities, befuddled by petty politics or cramped by pinch-penny educational policies, were failing to grasp opportunities to get government aid to build new schools, the Madisonville school district bought a 17-acre tract of land conveniently situated, came across with the city's share of the funds, and today the Hopkins county city has one of the finest high schools in West Kentucky, with a modern stadium on the campus.

I asked a civic leader if the city's school system were cursed with petty politics.

"Certainly not in the last twenty years," was his answer. "Our school boards have one single purpose in mind—the best schools they can get. Superintendents, principals, teachers do not play politics. They wouldn't last long if they did. And nearly everybody in Madisonville is keenly interested in the election of high class citizens, with no private axes to grind, to the school board."

There is one catch in the Madisonville school story. Property assessments are extremely low, which makes it impossible for the school board to raise all the money it needs to pay teachers. A thorough going over of the assessment books is another undertaking in the discussion stage.

Public health service in Madisonville measures up to the best in the state. Health insurance, giving families hospital service for a monthly fee of $1.50 per family, is notably successful. The city has no slums.

Madisonville has no bonded debt. It pays as it goes. The city treasury has over $60,000 surplus.

In the last decade Madisonville has not had enough graft in contracts to provoke a scandal that would reach around the court house square. The city government, with the local daily newspaper, the Messenger, always on the watch and ready to expose anything questionable in municipal affairs, does as clean a job as the people could expect.

Before World War II Madisonville's only source of industrial revenue was nearby coal mines. Now it has a furniture plant, and a large shirt factory is nearly completion. Its population before the war was 8,500. A recent local census gives it about 11,000.

If Kentucky had 100 cities and towns like Madisonville it would top the list of 48 states in public well-being.

VA MUST OK TRANSFERS OF STUDENT VETERANS
Veterans attending educational institutions under the G.I. Bill must obtain approval from the Veterans Administration before transferring to other schools, officials at the VA's Ohio-Michigan-Kentucky Branch Office in Columbus (O.) emphasized today.
Veterans who change institutions without prior approval will not be paid benefits until VA approval is obtained. A veteran should contact his VA office before leaving the institution in which he is enrolled to make certain that he will be entitled to continued allowances if he enters another institution. The proposed change must be considered by the VA Guidance and Advancement Section to determine whether it is for "a good and sufficient reason" and if it "promises of accomplishing the purpose of the educational program."

385 VETS IN TRI-STATE AREA GET FREE VEHICLES
A total of 385 amputee veterans in Ohio, Michigan, and Kentucky obtained new automobiles at government expense during December, the VA's tri-state Branch Office in Columbus (O.) reported today.
The total included 147 in Ohio, 186 in Michigan and 52 in Kentucky. The number certified as eligible to obtain vehicles at government expense includes 672 in Ohio, 599 in Michigan and 262 in Kentucky.
The program to furnish automobiles or other conveyances to World War II veterans who lost or lost the use of one or both legs went into operation last September. Under the law, total price for each vehicle cannot exceed $1,600, including special attachments.

2,837 VETS RECEIVE VA GUIDANCE IN 3 STATES
A total of 2,837 World War II veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky received advisement and guidance in connection with their education or training during December at the expense of the Veterans Administration, according to officials at the VA's Columbus (O.) Branch Office.
The assistance was rendered at 47 centers in the three states, including:

Q. I have two dependent children. I am a World War I veteran and would like to know if I can get a non-service-connected pension?
A. If you believe you are permanently and totally disabled, you should communicate with the VA regional office having jurisdiction over your address and forward to that office VA Form 8-562b, together with evidence of your condition.
Q. Where can I get information about readjustment allowance?
A. For specific information about readjustment allowances and your eligibility for them, you may inquire at a public employment office or at an office of the unemployment compensation agency in the territory in which you reside.
Q. I am going to school under the G.I. Bill. My eyes didn't bother me while I was in service, but they bother me now when I try to do very much studying. Will VA pay for a reader to read some of my textbook assignments to me?
A. No. Veterans with visual impairment are eligible for reader service only if they are enrolled under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (Public Law 16).

OHIOAN IS VA PROSTHETIC AGENT IN THREE STATES
Victor G. Weller of Delaware, Ohio, a disabled World War I veteran, has been appointed Special Prosthetic Representative for the Veterans Administration in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky, it was announced today at the VA's tri-state Branch Office in Columbus, Ohio.
Weller, Ohio Wesleyan University alumnus, will serve in a liaison capacity between VA and the public, handling the administrative and technical duties in the VA's prosthetic appliance program. Wounded twice in combat, he now wears a prosthetic device.
QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Q. Do the NSLI premiums increase as the insured grows older?
A. No. The premiums to be paid on any form of the insurance are established according to the age of the person insured at the effective date of the insurance. A person 30 years of age will pay a higher premium than a person 25 for the same plan of insurance.
Q. A World War I veteran receiving compensation for partial disability due to disease or injury incurred in service who is rated permanently and totally disabled for pension purposes is awarded the greater monetary benefit if his claim is otherwise appropriate. If the service-connected disability subsequently becomes even more disabling and represents an additional benefit, the ing 23 in Ohio, 16 in Michigan and 16 in Kentucky. The number of veterans counseled included 1,190 in Ohio, 1,000 in Michigan and 657 in Kentucky.

VA has negotiated contracts with various colleges and universities to provide this service without charge to eligible veterans. The service is designed primarily to help veterans select educational and vocational objectives commensurate with their interests and aptitudes.
Advisement and guidance is required before a veteran can change his course of instruction as a result of unsatisfactory progress. The service also is mandatory before a disabled veteran may enroll in education or training under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act.

VA PAYS NSLI BENEFITS TO 372,000 DEPENDENTS
Dependents of more than 372,000 deceased World War II veterans in the U.S. are receiving National Service Life Insurance benefits, according to information received by the Veterans Administration Branch Office in Columbus, Ohio. The average monthly payment is approximately $50, VA said. In more than 75 per cent of the cases, the Veterans' beneficiaries will receive monthly payments for the rest of their lives.

Tune In... Most Famous farm program of all time—The National Farm and Home Hour... every Saturday... N.B.C. Network—12:00 to 12:30 o'clock Central Standard Time.

Hot as a firecracker. That's an expression. Hot as a soldering iron. That's a fact! A fact spelling progress as new telephone connections are soldered together—putting speed into the Telephone Company's program to improve service.

Telephone folks are in the thick of things, striving to give you as quickly as humanly possible the kind of service you want. Installing equipment for more and better telephone service is a time-consuming, complicated job. Miles of wiring must be laid into switchboards. Millions of intricate connections soldered, each in its precise place. Banks of electrical relays set up. Cables laid. Poles erected. Wires strung. And sometimes a whole new building constructed.

"Get the work out!" That's our slogan. And that's exactly what we are doing as fast as we can get the materials and then install the equipment.

PROGRESS... and How!
In KENTUCKY during 1946, the Telephone Company installed more facilities than at any other time in history. 34,000 miles of exchange wire, 518 miles of long distance circuits, and 35,303 telephone lines were added. 70 local and long distance central office additions were made and the number of employees increased 30 percent. Watch telephone service grow, for as it grows so does its value to you. That's because you can reach so many more people!

RUPTURE

Expert Coming To Mayfield Again

Geo. L. Howe

Well known expert of Indianapolis, and ex-U. S. Army Medical Corpsman, will personally demonstrate his method without charge at the Ball, Hotel, Mayfield, Thursday, Feb. 6th, from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m.
Mr. Howe says the Howe method contracts the openings in remarkably short time on the average cases regardless of the size or location of the rupture, and no matter how much you lift or strain, and puts you back to work the same day as if you had never been ruptured.
The Howe Rupture Shield has no leg strap, waterproof, sanitary, practically indestructible, and can be worn while bathing. Each shield is skillfully molded and fitted to the parts under heat which gives a perfect fit and satisfaction.
Large and difficult ruptures following operations—especially hernia—Do not overlook this opportunity if you want gratifying results. Mail address: P. O. Box 5233 E. Michigan St. Station, Indianapolis, Ind.

Improved SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for February 2
Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education, used by permission.

JESUS THE GIVER OF LIFE

LESSON TEXT—John 4:46-51; 5:2-9; 11:1-13

MEMORY SELECTION—I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live—John 11:25.
The miracles of God, through his servant, the Lord Jesus Christ, are not mere marvels or wonders. They are not for the advancement of the cause of any man or for personal glory. They are the mighty signs of an omnipotent God wrought for the good of men, for their spiritual enlightenment and as a testimony to the one true God. Jesus is the giver of life, first and most important, of spiritual life, but also of physical life and health. Leaving Samaria after his blessed work there, our Lord went up into Galilee, where he met many simple-hearted folk who were ready to believe. Here he was able to work miracles of healing and of grace.

I. A Sick Boy Made Well (John 4:46-51).
A nobleman's son was sick. Ah, yes, affliction and sorrow come to the home of the rich as well as the poor. Death comes to the young as well as the old. In fact, the first grave dug in this world was for a young man.
But it is also true that affliction may be, in God's hand, a means of blessing. This son's sickness resulted ultimately in the salvation of the entire household (v. 53).
There is another beautiful lesson here—our Lord's Word is as good as his presence. The man asked Jesus to come, but he sent his word instead. It was accepted, believed, and completely effective.
How blessed for us who may not have the physical presence of the Lord to recall the potency of his Word. When he says it, believe it!

II. A Lame Man Made Whole (John 5:2-9)

Back in Jerusalem at the Feast of Purim, a time of joy and gift giving, our Lord found his way to the pool of Bethesda where there were misery and disease. His compassionate heart sent him there to help and to bless.
"Impotent folk"—the words well describe not only those who lay helpless about the pool of Bethesda, but they fit us as well. Oh, yes, we are strong, capable, fearless, but only until we meet some great elemental problem. Then we see that we are indeed "a great multitude of impotent folk." The silent fog can paralyze a nation. Death, sickness—who can stay their hand?
Long familiarity with his weakness had bred in the man with the infirmity a sense of despair. Such an attitude invites defeat. It is unbecoming to a Christian. Let us not forget in the darkest hour to "keep looking up."

Jesus told the man to "rise and walk," the very thing he could not do for his 38 years of life. But when the Son of God speaks to us he gives the power to respond to his command.
The fact that Jesus is our Friend and our Saviour does not exempt us from human sorrow, but it does assure us of the needed grace to bear the trial and to trust him even in life's darkest hour.
Lazarus, the friend of Jesus, was sick. The home in which Jesus had found rest and fellowship was in deep trouble. Jesus was no longer in Judea. In haste, word is sent to him of his friend's illness. But he did not come.
Why does he delay? Such is the heart cry of thousands who are pining on their hour of trouble. The purposes of God are beyond our ability fully to understand. We need only to trust him and abide his time.
Notice that the message of Lazarus' sisters did not mean that he had deserted them (11:46). Nor did it mean that he had denied them his help (cf. 7). Lazarus may have been dead before the word reached him. He may also have delayed in order that there might be no question about the resurrection miracle. Had he not have hurried in order that their faith might be strengthened.

III. A Dead Friend Made Alive (John 11:1-13)

Above all, do not fail to notice that he came—always does. Jesus has never failed any child of his. The time and the manner of his answer to our prayers may not conform to our opinion of what should have been done, but let's remember that we know only in part. He knows all. Let us trust him. In his darkest hour Job said: "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him" (Job 13:15).
He called Lazarus forth from the sleep of death. Even so he calls sinners forth from their spiritual death into glorious eternal life! The lifegiver, our Lord and Saviour, is here who ready to give life to everyone who will call on his name. Will you?

New Concord News

Guess the Concord Redbirds are putting us on the map, and of course we're very proud to add another trophy to our trophy case. We also appreciate having so many loyal readers on our side. Somehow, most everybody we see nowadays, say they are former Concordians or east siders. The east side of Caloway is pretty well represented in public now. Even Norman Lovins has joined the police force.

We're sorry to hear of so much sickness and so many deaths. Mrs. Ada Witherspoon's funeral was preached at New Hope by Bro. Henry Hargis Sunday, and Max Churchill went from there to attend to funeral arrangements for Herman Todd, the young ex-service husband of one of our Concord students, Mable George.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Windell Albritton on the arrival of a young son very considerable son, too; got her just in time for his daddy to run in and see him, then go to the ball game.

Dr. Houston was called to visit Mrs. Emma Nance one night last week, but we are glad she is recuperating now. Miss Mary Nance is home from Chicago. They are all enjoying having electricity at last.

A household shower was given at Mr. Wilson Farley's Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. J-P. Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Spiceland, Jackie and Sandra visited in Caloway over the week end. Loyd is taking sinus treatment at Paducah.

We hear that Bro. Noble Spiceland has been elected to take the vacancy left by Bro. Nelson's resignation at New Hope.

We always remember with pleasure our experiences of the valuable years spent in the Stewart County hills we learned to call home, and we count as priceless the friendships we made around old Nevil's Creek Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lovins were very pleasantly surprised by a short visit one day last week by Dr. Rainey T. Wells as he was out driving.

My mother recalls in by gone days hearing Dr. Wells (Raisley, a country teacher) debate on, "Which is Best, Pursuit or Possession." He has known both since. He has pursued and possessed fame and fortune, but he never lost that common touch which endeared him to rich and poor alike, and tho he has travelled much further, perhaps, than many of his old schoolmates who never knew any glory or wore any laurels other than rearing an honorable family, he can come back with his life's work accomplished and renew old acquaintances and sit down again as a friend among his possessions of friendships gained through the years. —Chatterbox

The Bunnie Farris Loose Leaf Floor, East Maple Street.

With the opening of the 1947 dark fired tobacco market in Murray, Calloway County is again engaged in its most colorful and profitable activity.

Murray's "Tobacco Town" assumes its hustling, efficient air of prosperity each year at this time as the annual leaf crop moves into town to swell the offerings on the five floors which consistently lead the Western District in sales.

In this setting of tremendous activity, the farmer's year long labors, the floors' keen competition, the flocking of buyers to town, and the overall pride which all concerned take in being a part of the district's greatest mart, culminate in one of Calloway County's most typical scenes.

The tobacco industry of Murray, which remains the largest single source of farm income for Calloway County, is controlled by a properly organized and well regulated Tobacco Board of Trade, composed of 14 different firms, and is the headquarters of the Western Dark Fired Growers Association.

These Murray plants represent an investment of over $400,000 in buildings and equipment and employ from 600 to 700 persons during the peak season with a seasonable payroll of approximately $175,000.

In leading the Western District, the Murray floors sold 9,650,000 pounds of dark fired leaf last year to bring the growers $2,630,000. Tobacconists estimate the 1947 sales, which were resumed Monday after a brief holiday, will approach $3,000,000.

Murray's five large loose leaf floors—Doran, Outland, Growers, Farris, and Planters—offer a total of 225,000 square feet of floor space and a capacity of 2,000,000 pounds daily sales. Each floor is privately owned.

Total floor space for all buildings in the Murray industry is 475,000 square feet.

Before the holiday was called on sales, the five loose leaf floors reported a sale of 2,854,625 pounds. The association's pool and buyers returned $718,785.46 to the growers.
